BUNCOMBE TALK ON THE TARIFF.

Sunset Cox, who is one of the least useful and practical men in Congress, and who talks and who talks to make sport whenever he can get the floor of the House, made a short speech the other day, on

Wood's tariff bill in the course of which he said:

The farmer starting for his work with a sheep put on his horse with a tax of 45 per cent, on a sheep with a tax of 50 per cent, on a horse with

BRIEFLETS.

—Cloudy and chilly.

—A stud-dog appeared this morning. Muzzle him.

—The days are fourteen hours long now, and two minutes to spare.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Myers arrived last evening from their wedding trip.

—Mr. W. B. Baines, south of the Blind Institute, has six acres of winter wheat, 15 inches high.

—The street gang went out to work today under Overseer Day, they having tired of bread and water diet.

—Mr. Van B. Ruth, an able representative of the Howe Machine Company is in the city to-day.

—Prof. Tice says— but who cares what he says. He never stopped a rain storm, or made the mud dry up yet.

—To-night the Temple of Honor meets for the installation of its officers. S. Clark Barnham, who is the State Deputy, will install them.

—A poodle dyed navy blue attracted attention on the streets to-day. It is common for a dog to get mad, but it is safer for them to get blue.

—A ten-year old tramp has turned up at Beloit. He says his name is Albert Jones, and that his father is connected with the Chicago Times.

—A special meeting of the City Council has been called, to be held this evening, immediately after the conclusion of the inspection of the Fire Department.

—At the art study of the Mutual Improvement Club this evening Miss Rose Hathorn will present a paper on "Velasquez," and Miss Nellie Fifield one on "Muller."

—At the meeting of the Bower City Boat Club last evening a committee was appointed consisting of John Dyer, E. B. Heimstreet, and E. P. Doty to purchase a new boat for the Club's use.

—Hansen sent to town to-day a fellow named Turner who got so full of gin that he walked like a corkscrew and finally laid down. The Marshal tendered him the use of a private conveyance to take him to the cooler.

—Dr. J. B. Walting has procured from R. T. Pember, of Johnstown, a heater not yet four years old, who is giving over fifty pounds of rich milk daily. If any one can make a better showing, let them not keep silence.

—Vankirk has received a remarkably fine lot of fresh strawberries. They are large, round and handsome, and have never been equalled in this city at this season of the year. They are delicious and tempting, and the price is moderate.

—A fellow named Steven Connors who laid about the depot last night, too drunk for either comfort or beauty, had a two-wheeled carriage sent for him by the Sheriff to-day, and he is now enjoying the hospitalities of the Hotel de Colby.

—Arrangements were made yesterday for the Myers House to entertain the fifty or sixty delegates, who are to come from all parts of the country, to attend the meeting of the Supreme Council of the Temple of Honor, to be held next August.

—Rev. George Wallace left yesterday for his new parish at Waterloo, New York, he having remained one day longer than he intended in order to officiate at a wedding which took place yesterday noon. The kindest wishes of his many friends and admirers here will follow him to his new work.

—Rev. Mr. Sawin started for Whitewater to-day where he will meet Prof. Hutchins, of Fond du Lac, and Prof. Guernsey, of Platteville, these three constituting the committee appointed by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to examine the condition of the Normal School at Whitewater.

—Some malicious lads inspired by unadulterated cussedness tore down the signs of Justice Wickham's office last night. There is a gang of youthful hoodlums who are in the habit of occupying the stairway of that building, and who gather there nightly. Justice should begin at home, and the watchman on that beat should get another eye open.

—At the red-ribbon meeting, last evening, in Lippin's Hall, the nominations for officers, made a few days ago, were ratified by a unanimous vote. Dr. McCollister made a brief address, and was followed by Mr. E. L. Dimock, the newly-elected President, and Mr. James Clark, both of whom gave some interesting talk. There were a number who donned the emblem and signed the pledge.

—Chief Engineer Young of the Fire Department desires the announcement to be made that at the inspection this evening, at the engine houses, no persons will be admitted except the Mayor and aldermen, members of the Fire Department, and representatives of the press, until the official inspection is over, when such citizens as desire can be gratified by witnessing some practice drill.

—Last evening Constable Taylor had his attention called to a young fellow from the country, who had drunk too much whisky, and who was wallowing about in an alley just south of West Milwaukee street. The young man was in a terribly filthy condition, and was becoming no better very fast, when the officers spied him, and carried him in on a drag. He gave his name as Thomas Dorsey.

—The base-balls of the city are enjoying a hearty laugh over the pretensions of the Maple Leafs, and claiming to be the champion amateur club of the State. Considering the fact that they have never been heard of before, their claim seems slightly concocted. If they will only come to Janesville, they can get up a game almost any afternoon, as the primary schools let out about 3 o'clock.

—Mr. O. H. Fethers fulfilled his position as one of the judges of the State oratorical contest at Appleton last evening. John Steele, of the Beloit college, won the highest marking, and will, in consequence, represent Wisconsin in the interstate collegiate contest, which takes place at St. Louis, May 8. His subject was "The Chief Influence of Science not Progress." It was also decided to hold the State contest next year at Beloit.

NECK AND NECK.

Next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings E. T. Stetson will appear at the Opera house in the sensational drama of "Neck and Neck." It is a play abounding in startling incidents and adventures, and with Mr. Stetson, supported by a strong company, will doubtless be well rendered. The play has had a long and successful run in New York, Chicago and other cities, and will doubtless draw a large house here. The Chicago Tribune says: "The drama abounds in pleasant surprises, and is seen again and again with renewed interest. The moral is of the purest character, and in its effect calculated to teach wholesome lessons to all."

A MIXED ROW.

The constables seem to be having a good deal of trouble lately. Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock Constable J. L. Robinson, of the town of Janesville, who was on trial, yesterday morning, for larceny, but who was acquitted, met Thomas Pratt, and his two sons, and Martin Anderson, in the Indiana saloon. A discussion arose about the late election at which Pratt was defeated by Robinson, and wrathful words soon gave way to wrathful blows. The party adjourned to the alley in the rear of the saloon, and tried to settle the trouble by fistfights. Robinson got one eye slightly draped, and a scratch across his face, besides having his clothes sadly involved in a real-estate speculation. Pratt got his ear nipped a little, and the others escaped with lesser wounds. Not satisfied with this, warrants were hurriedly applied for, and Justice Prichard called upon to settle the trouble. Martin Anderson got off by the payment of costs, the complaint being withdrawn. Henry and David Pratt were treated in a like manner. Thomas Pratt pleaded guilty to assault and battery, and was fined $3 and costs.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 49 degrees above zero and at 2 o'clock at 53 degrees above. Cloudy. One year ago to-day at corresponding hours the thermometer stood at 40 and 57 degrees above.

The indications are, colder northwest winds, rising barometer, partly cloudy weather.

OUT DOOR CONCERTS.

Several communications have appeared in the daily papers of late containing inquiries as to whether there would be any music in the Court House park during the evenings of the coming summer, and expressing hopes that there would be. Now as "everybody's business is nobody's business," I make it mine to see what can be done.

The great Napoleon said on one occasion that, in order to carry on a successful war, only three things are necessary: "The first is money, the second is money, and the third is money."

So with music in the park! If the public want it, they can undoubtedly have it. Are they willing to pay for it? In order to ascertain this, I will next week place subscription lists in the different book and music-stores, for the signatures of those who may feel interested in this matter, and the amount each one is willing to contribute weekly to defray the expense of furnishing open air popular concerts, on two or more evenings weekly, during the summer.

Yours etc.

J. S. WULFE.

ONLY A SAMPLE.

The following from the Whitewater Register is but a sample of the many complimentary notices which are appearing in the various papers of the West, and which indicate the merited popularity which Mr. Robbins has gained:

The Robbins always come in the spring-time, and the popular, far famed and ever-reliable "Robbins" has not failed to visit this locality early in May for several years past. This year he comes on the 14th and brings his entire collection of animate and inanimate curiosities and his unrivaled troupe of performers. Robbins makes a fortune every year but he does not seem to be able to keep it in the shape of hard cash or soft cash, for in the winter season he goes off hunting for new attractions, and comes back in the spring with lightened pockets but with car loads of curiosities that are rare or novel. Robbins is the prince of showmen because he labors to make an exhibition and an entertainment of real interest and of actual value, and not those which trick the eye and deceive his patrons. It is a remarkable testimony in his favor that where he is known best there is he held in the highest esteem, and his exhibitions never fail to draw crowded houses. He does well wherever he goes but his best field is near his own home in South Wisconsin. He is a great feature of his entertainment is that he is not swindling, gambling, drinking crowd is allowed to follow it or be in any way connected with it. The employees are nearly all members of the Temple of Honor which has been established by Mr. Robbins, and persons who patronize him need not fear that they will be insulted, or disgusted with exhibitions of drunkenness or profanity, or have their pockets picked.

Beloit.

—Death has been quite busy in our city during the past week and taken away several of our citizens whose prospects for the future seemed as fine as many of those remaining.

—The funeral of Miss Dora Thomas, who suicided on Tuesday afternoon, was largely attended, at the Baptist church, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. A post mortem examination was held, at the request of the deceased, which disclosed an abscess in the head, and the brain much diseased. This condition readily accounted for the rash act, which so suddenly put an end to a young life.

—B. F. Barnes, Esq., one of our old residents, the father of Clem Barnes, who was sent to Waupun last fall, for the murder of William Graham, died in this city on Monday. He was buried from his late home, on Third street, at 10 o'clock to-day. Mr. Barnes has been gradually failing in health since the trial and conviction of his son, and his premature death was, evidently, induced by this great shadow which fell upon his home and life.

—Mrs. Benjamin Toole, a widow lady, very highly respected by all who knew her, died at her residence in this city, Tuesday morning. She had been sick for a number of days but not considered dangerously so until a moment before her death. She died instantly without apparently any warning. There are many sorrowing hearts, that her life, so pure and beautiful among us has been closed, and that her mansion and kindly ministrations for the world have been ended.

—Mr. John Geddes, a young man about twenty-four years of age, for a long time book keeper for the Rock River Paper Company, died at the Goodwin house, in this city, on Tuesday evening. His remains were taken to his former home at Ann Arbor, Michigan, Wednesday morning, for interment.

—Miss Ann Rodd, maiden sister of William Rodd, formerly a resident of this city, died at his home in Chicago, Tuesday.

The funeral services were held at the residence of J. F. Rodd at four o'clock this afternoon. Rev. John McLean officiated.

—Major H. N. Davis left the city, Tuesday, with a car load of "insane cows" for the Asylum at Madison.

—Our city clergy were made happy, last Sabbath, and some of their congregations, no doubt, equally so, by clerical supplies from abroad. James W. Strong, D.D., of Carlton College, at Northfield, Minnesota, treated the Second Congregational church, to an excellent sermon. Rev. Woodbury of Rockford, was at the First church, and Rev. Egar at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

—Mad Mills is still confined to his house by sickness, his old kidney trouble yet clinging to him.

—At the Merrill & Houston Iron Works one hundred and fifty men are industriously pounding away upon the large paper mill machinery to be put in at Appleton in September. For the manufacture of such machinery Beloit has become famous, and has now to figure on about every paper mill erected in the country. Business at this institution has not been so encouraging since 1873, as now.

—Numerous petitions have been in circulation, the past week, for the reappointment of Dr. H. P. Strong as Post-treasurer. Dr. Strong has held the office since June, 1870. There are whispers of opposition; but what that is, in what form it will come, or who the aspirant is, doth not yet appear.

By the exercise of the most judicious management, the Grand Central Hotel, New York, has very cleverly turned the tide of trade in its direction, not less by the sweeping reduction of its rates than through its excellent management. apr29daw1w

We are always pleased to recommend a good article. Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup, never fails to cure a Cough or Cold in a short time. Try it. Only 25 cents a bottle. Sold by E. B. Heimstreet, apr29daw1w

The Dressing Case.—No lady can claim her dressing case to be complete in all that pertains to the Toilet, until she has it supplied with the Bertha Water, Toilet Soap and Toilet articles. These may be obtained of A. J. Roberts, Croft & Shearer, and H. C. Stearns. apr29daw1w

A Remarkable Result.—It makes no difference how many physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Coughs settled on the breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, etc., who have no personal knowledge of Bosche's German Syrup. To all such we would say that 50,000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all druggists in America. dec30daw15ecowen

A Pardonable Pride Prompts most people to delay, by any laudable means that science affords, the evidence of physical decay. Who that is in perfect health would not match the bright eye, the active mind, and other appearances of youthful vigor, with the luxuriance, the rich color and beauty of youthful hair? Parker's Hair Balsam stands pre-eminent as an elegant hair dressing, and by its healthful action on the roots not only promotes a luxuriant growth of the young hair, but unfailingly restores gray or faded hair to the original youthful color, giving a soft, rich and lustrous appearance of great beauty. No other preparation so effectually removes dandruff or stops falling of the hair; its cooling and healing action entirely curing itching and humors of the scalp, and keeping the skin clean, white and healthy. It is perfectly harmless, exquisitely perfumed, and contains nothing that will soil the skin or gum the hair. It is a safe, and is unequalled for excellence and purity. Buy a bottle from your druggist A. J. Roberts, Janesville, Wis., and test its merits. apr29daw15ecowen
